“Hey Hello, Hey Goodbye”

BY

Anastasia Morale

“Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could chase the midnight sky
With its pink and its gold
The tears we shan’t longer know
Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could run until we die”
With stars and pain
With lover’s gain
With war and guilt
Silence is still
But in this silence you can hear
“Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could chase the midnight sky
With its pink and its gold
The tears we shan’t longer know
Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could run until we die”
Place my hand into the flames or rage
Place my soul into the cool of the snow
Take my tears
Take my Pain
Turn them into your Northern Star
Let them guide you
Let them lead you
So one day you too can say
“Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could chase the midnight sky
With its pink and its gold
The tears we shan’t longer know
Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could run until we die”

Hear the song that will open your heart
Listen to the minds of the thousands that are broken
And learn to believe
Take my hand my dear,
And I can show you the stars
Learn the words
Tell them to the world
To the wolf and the lamb
All will soon say:
"Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could chase the midnight sky
With its pink and its gold
The tears we shan't longer know
Hey Hello
Hey Goodbye
We could run until we die"
