

Lessons for Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

July 10, 2022

Psalm 41 ~ A prayer of trust in God's mercy for the weak and petition for his deliverance.

Leviticus (18:1-5) 19:9-18 ~ God's people treat others the way God would treat them.

Colossians 1:1-14 ~ Our relationship to the Father through Christ calls us to a life of love toward all.

Luke 10:25-37 ~ Jesus is the model for being a good neighbor to those in need.

GATHERING THE TEXTS: Always Remember to be Kind!

God's commands illustrate what love is by prohibiting any mistreatment of others and requiring us to treat our neighbors the way we would treat ourselves. It was Christ's reconciling love that had claimed Paul as a servant of the Gospel, so that he was ready to go to great lengths to show God's love to the Colossians. Jesus' story of the good Samaritan points out that a neighbor's love is shown in acts of mercy to those in need.

PRAYER BEFORE THE SERVICE: Lord God, keep your Word near to my heart so that you are always first in my heart. Then your love will flow from my heart to others so they may know your salvation in Christ Jesus. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: Our special relationship to God through Christ Jesus puts us in the unique place of having the hope of heaven and the wisdom to share that hope with neighbors through loving actions in this world.

OFFERING PRAYER: Lord, use these gifts in showing love to those who need to know You. And use our lives to share Your love in all we say and do. Amen.

CONVICTION AND COMFORT: We rejoice in the hope of heaven that God has given us through Christ Jesus, but we often fail to apply that hope to the conditions around us in this world. We are usually more concerned with who will prove to be a neighbor to us than we are about who needs our help as a neighbor. Because we have been qualified for the inheritance of heaven through the love of Christ, our lives are informed with His love for all those around us who are in need. Our lives show forth God's love.

Questions to Consider: Where would you go to look for a neighbor?

- Why did God repeatedly tell the people, "I am the Lord!"?
- Where did the love the Colossian believers had for all the saints come from?
- Who is the model for a neighbor's love?
- What is the real answer to the lawyer's question?

Bonus on next page: Hymn text: Jesus Shined His Light on Me

Jesus Shined His Light on Me

Jesus shined his light on me,
Gave me sight that I may see.
Jesus always walks beside me
On the path of life to guide me.
Now my faith shines like a light
In the darkness of the night.

Jesus loves us every day:
Died to take our sins away.
When God washed us in the waters
We became his sons and daughters.
Now we live like children should,
Always trying to be good.
